Comprehensive guide! Its this type of very good read through. It is actually writter in simple words and phrases rather than difficult to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 168 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Merriam Press Military Monograph 240 (High Quality Edition: Printed on quality paper for better reproduction of photos). Seventh Edition (December 2011). This is a newly-produced reprint of a mimeographed report by Maj. Gen. Isaac D. White, Commanding General, 2nd Armored Division, produced in March 1945 for General Eisenhower at his request after he had seen accounts attributed to armored forces GIs who considered American tanks very inferior in quality to those of the Germans. As an aside he also requested comparisons in other types of equipment such as half-tracks, light tanks, trucks, guns, bazookas, and even clothing and rations. The resulting report includes General Whites own opinions, plus the opinions of over 150 officers and enlisted men. There is also a report on the characteristics of the German Mark V tank. The reading of this report will be a significant eye-opener for every World War II historian, wargamer, model builder, and buff. In reading this report, youll wonder how we managed to win the war in Europe at all, with such a mediocre tank as the Sherman. This is one of the most fascinating reports you will ever read. Contents: Introduction; Digest of Opinions of Tank Officers and Crews of 66th and 67th Armored Regiments; Comparison of United States Equipment with Similar German Equipment; Personal Convictions of Individual Officers and Enlisted Men of the 2nd Armored Division as to Comparison of German versus American Armor and Equipment; Characteristics of the German Mark V Tank. 63 photos, 2 illustrations, 1 table. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
