A friend of mine first introduced me to the natural Law of Attraction in early 2007, and I found myself caught up in this New Age sensation along with many others around me. Several of my coworkers had Buddha's dictum All that we are is the result of what we have thought posted in their cubicles-each of them determined to improve their lives with the help of this daily reminder. I, too, was so inspired by this revelation that my second book came to me in record speed. In 2007, I resolved to put this theory to the test-to determine, for myself, whether it is true that we attract what we focus on. I began meditating and making an honest effort to start every single morning with at least five grateful thoughts. After nearly three years of consciously and deliberately applying the principles of the Law of Attraction in my life, I present to you my third book titled 11:11. For me, this is about so much...
