Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Cheryl Ramirez (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Their Journey Begins. A prequel featuring individual short story vignettes of Gregory, Robert, Marissa, and Daniel before their lives converge in Journey to Freedom. Gregory is a half-breed; a mix of Indian and black blood, and struggles both emotionally and physically with hatred and prejudice. Robert is a slave on a Florida plantation who takes in the starving, angry young Gregory, under his wing and helps him grow into a man of honor. Marissa is a young girl who watches her mother waste away working as a maid in the saloon. Dodging the advances of the owner and his threats to put her in service, Marissa dreams of having a better life and strikes out on her own after her mother's death. Daniel is an introvert who finds safe haven away from civilization and his past. His business of trapping is successful and he finds contentment in the simple life he leads until he has two visitors. There are no spoilers in this book so it can be read before or after Journey to Freedom. About Journey to Freedom: Set amid the tumultuous backdrop of the American Civil War, Journey to Freedom, chronicles the harrowing misadventures of individuals through nineteenth century America, battling violence, prejudice, and the inherent struggles of their time. Join author K-Trina Meador for a touching saga of love, faith, and survival.
