Can it be, that the Hon. T. B. forgets that there is some $7,600,000,000 of assessment insurance in come wise. SPECULATIONS are being indulged in as to who will be the successor of the Hon. Jas. F. Pierce in the office of Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York. The recent election of Mr. Black, the Republican candidate for Governor, points to a change in the head of the Insurance Department. Just who will be the man fortunate enough to enjoy the office for the next three years, with its salary of $7,000 a year, has not yet been determined. THE probability of Mr. Bryan s entering the field of insurance journalism is discredited by Insurance, who says that the rumor...
