Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My name is Helena, and I am fourteen past. I have two other Christian names; one of them is rather queer. It is Naomi. I don't mind having it, as I am never called by it, but I don't sign it often because it is such an odd name. My third name is not uncommon. It is just Charlotte. So my whole name is Helena Charlotte Naomi Wingfield. I have never been called by any short name, like Lena, or Nellie. I think the reason must be that I am an only child. I have never had any big brother to shout out Nell all over the house, or dear baby sisters who couldn't say Helena properly. And what seems still sadder than having no brothers or sisters, I have never had a mother that I could remember. For mamma died when I was not much more than a year old, and papa six months before that. But my history has not been as sad as you might think from this. I was very happy indeed when I was quite a little child. Till I was nine years old I really did not know what troubles were, for I lived with grandmamma, and she made up to me for everything I had not got: we loved each other so very dearly. I will tell you about our life.
