Excerpt: .who came as far as High River, I record the name of His Honor E. Dewdney, Indian Commissioner, who takes so great an interest in our industrial institutions; several officers of the Indian Department who use all their endeavors to have our school a complete success. All were pleased with its success. In finishing, I must tender my best congratulations to the officers of this school, -first to the Rev. Father Lacombe, Principal, who neglected nothing to secure the progress of this school; to the assistant and other employes whose kind and affectionate manners obtained from the children respect, obedience and confidence. I owe a special mention to the Rev. Sisters for the good care they take of the children, to inspire in them good habits of cleanliness and order, but especially for their kind attentions to the children during their long illness. If we succeed in filling up the empty places this fall I have no doubt that our-suecess will continue. S1a, --I have the honor to submit the following report of my inspection o f the different agencies and reserves, as well as the industrial and private schools which I have visited during the season, from June until November. My first inspection was at Crooked Lakes Agency, Colonel Macdonald being the Indian agent. On the 28th of June and following days, in company with this gentleman, I went over the whole of the reserves and examined every field. As this was my...
