Two lives with horrific pasts. One chance meeting that changed them both forever. One look at her and I want to run. Frizzy hair, thick glasses, mom jeans, and ruffles up to her neck. Who the hell wears shit like that? What decade is she living in? My mother doesn't even dress like that! Raised by a monster, Kestrel Hart somehow survived. Now that the monster is dead, he's trying to move on, to pull himself together. Struggling with issues no one can imagine, he moves away from his family, from the brother who loves him and the sister-in-law who supports and understands him the best. Charleston, South Carolina is his new home. And he has a purpose. He's opening up a new division of his brother's corporation. But a surprise awaits him. Her name...
