Excerpt: . CHAPTER V. OF UNION WITH GOD IN THE OBSERVANCE AND THE DUTIES OF THE SABBATH. Introductory remarks. -- Objected to the observance of the Sabbath, that all days are equally holy. -- Explanations of this view and answer to it. -- Of the rest and peace of the Sabbath. -- Of the spiritual benefits of the Sabbath. -- Union with God implies union with him in the support of this day. Those designs of mercy, which God entertains towards our fallen race, will be carried on, in part at least, in connection with the Christian Sabbath. And those, who cooperate and are united with God, will cheerfully recognize the day, and harmonize in its great purposes. It is not our object, however, to enter into the subject of the original establishment of the Sabbath, nor of the change of the Sabbath from the...
